10. High moral and ethical standards are expected of each contestant to include proper respect for parents, committee members, and judges. These same standards apply to the contestant's family and friends attending the contest. Un-sportsmanship like conduct will not be tolerated from contestant or contestant's family or friends and may result in contestant being disqualified.
11. Safety and sportsmanship will be always considered. Judges reserve the right to disqualify any contestant for disregard to the safety of themselves, other contestants, or spectators.
